H. G. HARMELING LATEST FROM SEAT OF WAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 .- A dispatch o the World says the Boers have been ordered to leave Johannesburg, and hat this step is believed by some to mean that the wholesale destruction of property is to be resorted to in the ity. Johannesburg is chiefly owned by Englishmen. De tailed reports of the battles of Glencoe camp and Elandslaagte show that the loss of ife on both sides was very heavy. Late yesterday afternoon it was reported that the Boers were shelling Dunder, but It is said that their fire was on the whole ineffective. Gen eral Koch, second in command of the Boers at the battle of Elandslangte, died yesterday of his wounds.

LADYSMITH, Oct. 23 .- The second attack of the Boers on Glencoe has fatled. The Boer artillery, which was ineffective, was easily slepced. The British forces made a sortie and is now engaged with the enemy.

LONDON, Oct. 23. - Datziel news sgency has two sensational dispatchpatches from Cape Town. The first says the Boers were badly defeated in the second attack on Glencoe and the second contains Pretoria advices reporting that President Kruger favors unconditional surrender and that a meeting of the executive council has been called for tomorrow to discuss LADYSMITH, Oct. 23 .- Details of the fighting around Glencoe are lacking. It is not known whether the second attack was made by Joubert's column or whether it was only a skt-mish. The Boer hospital, consisting of one doctor and p imitive app'tances, captured and added to British hospital in field.

GOT HIS CHILD.

But His Wife Remained Behund and Would Not Go.

A man named Nixon and his brother, of Hopkinsville, came in yesterday morning in quest of a recreant wife, whom the elder claimed had run away with their child. She was finally located and the father took possession of the child.

At the Union depot, an officer being with him, he attempted to persuade her to go back. He called her "darling" and used other endearing terms, finally calling her by her first name. She ordered him not to address her thus, however, and denounced him, saying he had deserted her two with him no longer. The father and child left, but the mother is still in oung man 3 5 years old, but who can nass for 25, was arrested this after noon about 12:30 o'clock by Lockup Keeper Menifee, on a charge of being a fugitive from justice, wanted in Litchfield, Ill., for forgery, and for jumping a $1,000 bond. A reward of $50 was offered for bis capture. Terry had been watched for several days past. Marshal Collins Thurs day received a telegram from Sheriff Cassedy, of Hillsbore, Ill., saying that Glenn had skipped, and had ordered bis mail forwarded from Charleston, W. Va., to Paducah to T.

H. Terry. The officers immediately began to watch, and Friday the young man called at the post office. It happened that the officers were at dinner lowever, and he got away.

Marshal Collins was confident that se had not left the city, and set a trap for bim. This afternoon he called for his mail again. Mr. E. G. Mitts, mail agent, shadowed bim when he left the post office, and he went to a boarding bouse on Court street, not far from the city hall. Lockup Keeper Mentfee was the only one at the city ball at the time and going to the boarding house he captured Terry without any trouble. The young man had little to say. He asked what he was arrested for and Marshal Collins told him. Judge Sanders Issued a Warrant against bim this afternoon for being a fugitive from justice, and he will be held until the Illinois officers get him. From his papers it was seen that
